

I urge you to not relax broadcast ownership rules. Democracy depends on a lively and independent 4th estate, and corporate consolidation defeats this purpose. If anything, ownership rules should be enforced to prevent multiple media outlets being owned and operated by the same source. VOTE NO!